school terms.

Foreword

Quality education comes about as a mix of factors. The teacher is the most important element in ensuring that a child acquires the right kind of education to meet acceptable learning outcome benchmarks. It takes a lot to bring a teacher to exhibit the right mix of attitudes, aptitudes and skills, which is why the state has partnered with ESSPIN to develop literacy and numeracy lesson plans.

I hope the lesson plans will empower our teachers to equip our children with the literacy and numeracy skills they need to succeed in both school and society.

Finally, I commend all who have worked hard to develop and produce the lesson plans, especially the Enugu State Universal Basic Education Board, the UK Department for International Development (DFID) and the DFID-funded Education Sector Support Programme in Nigeria (ESSPIN).

Professor Chris Uchechukwu Okoro
Honourable Commissioner for Education
Enugu State

Introduction

The literacy and numeracy lesson plans arising from the School Improvement Programme (SIP) are part of efforts to improve teaching and learning in response to the baseline surveys and classroom observations in 2010. These indicated that teachers had challenges with lesson delivery, which in turn negatively affected children's learning.

The state plans to make the lesson plans available to teachers in all 1,223 public primary schools at the beginning of the 2014/15 school year.

I hereby call on all stakeholders to ensure the lesson plans are put to effective use to improve teaching and learning in our schools.

▶ Assessment for learning

Assessment for learning

Effective assessment can support the teaching and learning of all pupils. Used well, it can move pupil learning forward, giving all pupils the chance to be successful learners.

Assessment in the classroom happens all the time, it is an ongoing process. It helps you to find out:

What your pupils have learned.

How well you are teaching.

How to plan your next steps of teaching.

What your pupils are doing well and what they need to practise.

At the beginning of every week the lesson plans explain that in every lesson you should walk round the classroom and ask questions to see if the pupils clearly understand what you have taught them. It is important that if they do not, then you should help by explaining the idea to them again – maybe in a different way or with another example, or you could ask another pupil to help them.

Assessment used each day in the classroom gives you a much broader picture of your pupils' ability and progress. It also helps to give your pupils a sense of achievement, helping them to understand what they can do well and what they still need to practise.

There are many ways that you can assess your pupils' knowledge and understanding:

By observing.

Using careful questioning.

Through discussion with individuals, pairs or groups of pupils.

When marking work produced by individual pupils.

Looking at exams at the end of a term.

In every classroom there will always be some pupils who learn faster than others. When you read the learning outcomes for each day, think about which of your pupils will achieve them at the end of the lesson and which of them will need more time to achieve the learning outcomes.

As you get to know your pupils you will be able to plan how you can help each pupil to do their best in every lesson.

The greedy tortoise story

Part 1

A long time ago the animals were sad and scared. There had been no rain and the plants did not grow. There was very little food. Some animals stole food. Sometimes there were fights. They were very hungry.

The Lion King called them all to a meeting. He said, 'You must all bring any food to me. I will share it out.' Some of the animals thought this was a trick but he said, 'I will bring my own food first.' Then all the animals agreed. They went to get their food.

Part 2

Tortoise pretended he had no food at all. He started to cry and said, 'I have no food to share.' The other animals felt sorry for him. Lion said, 'Do not worry. You can share our food.'

All the animals brought their food. Lion shared it into small pieces and kept some for the next day. For the first time all the animals had a good meal. After this dinner Tortoise hid behind a big tree. He sang a song, 'Mother, throw down the rope! Throw down the rope! I need food!'

He sang until a rope fell from the top of the tree. He climbed up the rope to the top. His mother lived in a house on a strong tree branch. She had cooked a tasty meal of moi-moi. Tortoise ate and ate. Then he ate some mangoes and oranges. His belly was as big as a bag full of small yams. He slid slowly down the rope.

Part 3

Every day Tortoise ate the other animals' food and then went to the tree. He sang the same song and the rope came down. He ate and ate. His belly was very fat.

One day, Elephant heard him singing. 'Why are you so fat and happy?' he asked. 'It is the air', said Tortoise and he went away. Elephant was angry.

Later, Snake saw Tortoise climbing the tree. She went to tell Lion but Lion did not believe her. Days went by and Tortoise got fatter and fatter while the other animals got thinner. One day, Monkey saw Tortoise climbing the rope. He told Lion but Lion did not believe him.

The next day Lion heard Tortoise singing. He sent Giraffe to find out what Tortoise was doing. Giraffe saw Tortoise climbing the rope. She stretched her long neck to see what he was doing. She saw him eating lots of food. She ran to tell Lion.

Part 4

Lion called all the animals. They marched to the tree. Tortoise started to come down the rope. He saw Lion. He was afraid. He fell and hit the ground. His shell broke into pieces. Lion pulled him up and said, 'If you don't tell me what you have been doing I will not mend your shell.'

Tortoise told Lion that he kept a lot of food in the tree. He said he was sorry for not sharing it. Lion mended his shell. Tortoise took all the animals up the tree for a feast. After that he always shared his food.

Sunshine and rain story

In the dry season the weather is very hot and dry. The flowers dry up and die. The leaves die on the trees. The grass gets brown and we cannot find food to eat. The water in the rivers and lakes gets very low. We all wait and watch for rain.

At last we see black clouds in the sky. We work hard in the fields and gardens. Every day we look at the sky and we say, 'Tomorrow we shall have rain'. Then the wind begins to blow and at last the rain falls. Sometimes we have heavy rain, sometimes just a little rain. The ground gets soft and we plant our seeds in the soft, wet soil.

Soon we see little green leaves coming up out of the earth. The plants start to grow.

The weather is changing. Sometimes we have rain, sometimes we have sun. Day by day the plants grow bigger and stronger.

After this comes the heavy rain. The thunder roars. Rain pours down from the sky each day. The rivers get full of water. The heavy rain runs down the street. The ground is muddy. The ditches fill with water. Everyone is happy. The plants grow taller every day. Everywhere we see beautiful flowers. The grass grows green and the goats and cows have plenty to eat. After the heavy rain the sun shines again and soon the crops are ripe and ready to pick. Then we are thankful for having rain and plenty of good food.

Sunshine and rain sentences

Plants grow.
The goats and cows can eat.
We plant seeds in the soil.
The grass is brown.
We see black clouds.
The rain comes.
It is very hot.

The scorpion's sting story

Sadly, Yemi and Oti's mother had died and although they were very poor, they lived happily with their father.

Yemi and Oti had to work very hard. They fetched water, fed the chickens and cleaned the house.

One day their father told them he was going to marry again. When the new wife came she was lazy and unkind. She sat on a chair all day and spoke angrily to them. She gave them even more work to do.

While they were out picking mangoes one day a scorpion suddenly appeared. It stung Oti. Oti screamed loudly. Yemi rushed Oti home quickly. Their father made his new wife look after Oti.

Animal facts

African elephants are the biggest land animals in the world. Elephants have very thick, grey skin. African elephants have very big ears and long trunks. They have long, pointed tusks. Elephants eat grass, leaves, shoots, fruit and bamboo. They use their long trunks to pick up food from the ground and to drink water.

Camels have a hump. Camels can live without food for a long time because they have fat in their humps. If camels get angry they spit. They can run fast. They have very long legs. They have long eyelashes to keep the sand out of their eyes. They eat leaves, seeds and grass.

Crocodiles have scaly skin. They have long, low bodies and short legs. Crocodiles have very big jaws and sharp teeth. They live in water and on the land. They can swim fast. Crocodiles eat fish and birds.

Monkeys live in trees. They live with their families. They are very noisy and like to chatter. They eat bananas. They have long tails. They can swing from tree to tree.

Snakes live in holes in the ground or in trees. Some snakes are poisonous. They have a sharp bite. They have a forked tongue. They have a long body. They lay eggs.

Stick puppets

Draw an animal on to a piece of paper or card.

Cut it out. Make a set of lions for the Lion group, a set of tortoises for the Tortoise group, and so on.

Get a stick about twice as long as the piece of card. Stick it on the back of the card with masking tape.

Spelling tricky words

Look carefully at the word. How many letters has it got? Are there any dangly or tall letters? Can you sound any letters out? Air write the word.

Say the word five times.

Hide the word.

Write the word.

Check the word carefully. Well done if it is correct, but if any letters are wrong change them.

Look at the word again carefully and repeat the steps if necessary.

During the lesson, walk round the classroom and ask questions to see if the pupils clearly understand what you have taught them. If not, help them to understand by explaining the idea to them again, or asking other pupils to help them. You may need to use some different examples of the idea.

The scorpion's sting

Learning outcomes

By the end of the lesson, most pupils will be able to:

Read and spell high frequency words.

Use adverbs in sentences.

Teaching aids

Before the lesson:

Have ready the 'u-e' flash cards from last week.

Write the sentences opposite on the chalkboard.

Write 'The scorpion's sting' from the introduction on the chalkboard.

Make a set of the first seven key words on large flash cards for each group.

Letters and sounds

Whole class teaching

Flash the 'u-e' cards.

Write, 'said', 'have', 'do', 'some' and 'come' on the chalkboard.

Ask if anyone can read them.

Ask why these words are difficult to read. (The 'ai' in 'said' has a different sound from the sound in 'rain and 'again'.)

Read the sentences to the class and ask the pupils which words are missing.

Ask the pupils to complete the sentences in their exercise books.

Write 'live', 'give', 'saw' and 'very' on the chalkboard and read them to the class.

Explain their meaning and discuss the tricky bits.

Teach the pupils how to spell the words using the 'look, say, hide, write, check' method.

Dictate the following sentences slowly for the pupils to write in their exercise books: 'I live in a house.', 'I give my pen to Simbi.', 'Simbi saw Edet in the house.', 'It is very hot.'

minutes

Introduction

Pair task

Remind the pupils they have been reading a story called 'City life'.

Ask them to describe how Imeh might feel now that he is away from home.

Write some of their ideas on the chalkboard.

25
minutes

Main activity

Group task

Tell the pupils that Imeh has started to write a letter to his father but he needs help with it.

Ask them what he needs to write first in his letter, ie: his address on the right-hand side with the date underneath.

Ask them what he needs to do next, ie: write 'Dear Father' on the left-hand side.

Give each group a copy of the letter.

10
minutes

Plenary

Whole class teaching

Read some of the letters to the class.

Ask them to discuss what the missing words in the first sentences could be, and write them in their group letter.

Tell them to use some of the words on the chalkboard to write how Imeh feels now, eg: 'I am very happy.'

Tell them to write some of the things that he does, eg: 'I work very hard at school.'

'I have made lots of new friends.'

'Sometimes we play football after school.'

'We have a lot to eat.'

Give them time to finish the letters.

Longer sentences

Learning outcomes

By the end of the lesson, most pupils will be able to:

Read the words 'little', 'only' and 'because'.

Write sentences using the word 'because'.

Teaching aids

Before the lesson:

Write 'little', 'only' and 'because' on the chalkboard.

Copy the 'because' sentences opposite on to strips of card or paper.

Letters and sounds

Whole class teaching

Dictate the following words for the pupils to write in their exercise books: 'live', 'give', 'saw', 'very'.

Read 'little', 'only' and 'because' to the class.

Explain their meaning and discuss the tricky bits.

Teach the pupils how to spell the words using the 'look, say, hide, write, check' method.

Dictate the following sentences slowly for the pupils to write in their exercise books: 'The little girl is sad.', 'There is only rice to eat.', 'She is sad because she is lost.'

minutes

Introduction

Whole class teaching

Ask if anyone can remember some adjectives to describe the journey in the story they have been reading, eg: 'long', 'slow', 'crowded', 'noisy'.

Write their ideas on the chalkboard.

Ask the pupils to say the opposites of these words.

25
minutes

Main activity

Group task

Tell the pupils that the word 'because' can be used to make sentences longer.

Tell them it is used to explain why something happens.

Give each group one of the 'because' sentences.

Ask the pupils to read and discuss an ending for their sentence.

10
minutes

Plenary

Whole class teaching

Read each 'because' sentence to the class.

Choose pupils from different groups to read their answers.

Ask the other groups if they are correct. If not, ask them to explain why.

Water

Learning outcomes

By the end of the lesson, most pupils will be able to:

Spell some high frequency words.

Read a passage for information.

Teaching aids

Before the lesson:

Write the first six high frequency words on the chalkboard and on flash cards for each pair.

Copy the information passage opposite on the chalkboard.

Write the first five key words on large flash cards.

Letters and sounds

Pair task

Read out the words on the chalkboard.

Use the 'look, say, hide, write, check' method to teach the pupils how to spell one of the words.

Give each pair a set of high frequency word cards.

Ask one to hold up the card for the other to look at carefully, say and air write.

Tell the pupils to hide the card while their partner tries to write it.

If it is correct, do the next card. If it is incorrect, repeat the process.

When all the words are written correctly, tell the pupils to swap roles and start again.

minutes

Introduction

Whole class teaching

Read the passage on the chalkboard to the class.

Tell the pupils that this is not a story. This writing is called an information report.

Explain that an information report tells us facts about something.

Show, read and explain the first five key words.

Choose some pupils to read the words with you.

25
minutes

Main activity

Group task

Read the passage again.

Ask the groups to discuss the things we need water for.

Write, 'We need water for ____.'

Ask the pupils to complete the sentence in their exercise books and draw a picture for each sentence.

10
minutes

Plenary

Whole class teaching

Ask each group to say a sentence and ask the others if they are correct.

Water

About two-thirds of the Earth's surface is covered in water. Approximately 97% of this is salt water. Almost 2% is frozen, leaving 1% as fresh water.

Water is one of the most important parts of our daily life. It is our most valuable resource. Every day we drink water, cook with water, bathe in water and wash our clothes in water.

We have access to water in streams, rivers and lakes. Sometimes we buy pure water to drink.

A poem about water

Learning outcomes

By the end of the lesson, most pupils will be able to:

Write sentences with high frequency words.

Discuss ideas for words to be used in a poem.

Teaching aids

Before the lesson:

Have ready the set of high frequency word flash cards from yesterday for each pair.

Write the sentences listed opposite on the chalkboard.

Make two sets of all the key words
on flash cards for each group.

Letters and sounds

Main activity

Whole class teaching

Tell the pupils they are going to help you write a poem.

Explain that a poem is a collection of words that describe something. Poems do not have to rhyme.

Ask pupils to think of: some adjectives to describe water, some ways they use water, and ideas about who needs water.

Ask the pupils to say their ideas and write them on the chalkboard eg: cool, clean, pure water. Cleaning, cooking and washing. People and plants need water.

Tell them that they have written a type of poem.

Group task

Tell the groups to practise reading the poem.

Plenary

Whole class teaching

Choose some groups to read the poem to the class.

Sentences

A lot of people go to the market.

The old man had a bad leg.

I like your dress.

Sunshine and rain

Learning outcomes

By the end of the lesson, most pupils will be able to:

Spell some high frequency words.

Sequence sentences correctly.

Teaching aids

Before the lesson:

Write the last five high frequency words on flash cards for each pair.

Have ready the class poem from yesterday.

Read 'Sunshine and rain' in the introduction and make a set of 'Sunshine and rain' sentences for each group.

Letters and sounds

Pair task

Write the last five high frequency words on the chalkboard and ask if anyone can read them.

Give each pair a set of words.

Ask one to hold up the card for the other to look at carefully, say and air write.

Tell them to hide the card while their partner tries to write it.

Introduction

Whole class teaching

Read the poem from yesterday.

Explain to the class that they are going to collect words and ideas to help them write another poem about the rain.

Read 'Sunshine and rain'.

Read it again and ask the pupils to role play each section: the dry season, the rain starting to come, the heavy rain, crops growing.

Main activity

Group task

Give each group a set of 'Sunshine and rain' sentences.

Tell them to read each sentence carefully and try to arrange them in the correct order to explain the dry and rainy seasons.

Tell them to discuss what happens first, ie: it is hot, and then decide what comes next.

When they have ordered the sentences, tell the pupils to read them and discuss if they think they are correct.

Ask each group to read their sentences and ask the others to say if they are correct.

Plenary

Pair task

Ask the pupils to discuss what sound the rain makes, eg: 'drums on the roof'.

Ask them, 'What does the rain do to you? How does it make you feel?'

Write their ideas on the chalkboard and keep them for the next day.

In the rainy season

Learning outcomes

By the end of the lesson, most pupils will be able to:

Write high frequency words in sentences.

Collect ideas for a poem.

Teaching aids

Before the lesson:

Have ready the high frequency word flash cards from yesterday for each pair.

Write the word sentences listed opposite on the chalkboard.

Make sure that 'Sunshine and rain' and the ideas for the rain poem from yesterday are on the chalkboard.

Letters and sounds

Pair task

Flash the word cards from yesterday.

Read the sentences with the pupils.

Ask them to describe what it is like in the dry season and how people feel.

Ask them to describe what happens in a rainstorm using adjectives, eg: lightning flashes, flooded streets.

Write their ideas on the chalkboard.

Main activity

Whole class teaching

Ask the pupils to draw pictures to show what happens in the dry season, when the rain starts to come, during the heavy rain and when the sun shines.

Ask them to discuss in their groups what people often say at each of these times, eg: in the dry season.

Tell them to write what people might say in speech bubbles on their drawings.

Plenary

Whole class teaching

Ask each group to do their role play for the class.

Ask pupils from different groups to read their sentences.

Add some of their ideas to the list on the chalkboard and keep it for tomorrow.

A rain poem

Learning outcomes

By the end of the lesson, most pupils will be able to:

Write high frequency words in sentences.

Write a simple poem about rain.

Teaching aids

Before the lesson:

Have ready all the high frequency words learned this week on flash cards.

Have ready the adjectives and ideas for the rain poem from yesterday.

Have ready the 'Water' poem written earlier in the week.

Letters and sounds

Whole class teaching

Hold up the high frequency word flash cards and read them with the pupils.

Choose some pupils to try to write them on the chalkboard.

Rub the words off the chalkboard.

Read each word slowly.

Ask the pupils to write a sentence with some of the words.

Write some of the sentences on the chalkboard.

Ask the pupils to check the spellings.

10
minutes

Introduction

Whole class teaching

Read the ideas that the pupils have collected this week.

Ask if they can think of any other words to describe the rain and what happens when it rains.

Add any new ideas to the list.

Read 'Water' and ask the pupils what kind of writing it is, ie: a poem.

Remind them that a poem is a collection of ideas to describe something.

Tell them they are now ready to write their own poems about the rain.

25
minutes

Main activity

Pair task

Tell the pupils to write 'Rain' in their exercise books.

Ask them to choose some of the words on the chalkboard to describe how it feels in the dry season. Tell the pupils to write them under 'Rain'.

Explain that they do not need to write sentences when they write a poem.

Ask some pairs to say some of the words they have chosen and write them on the chalkboard so they can see how to set out their poem, eg: 'rain, hot dry day, grass brown, no rain'.

Learning outcomes

By the end of the lesson, most pupils will be able to:

Read CCVC words.

Describe an animal.

Teaching aids

Before the lesson:

Write the following words on the chalkboard: 'spin', 'spot', 'stop', 'trip', 'track', 'twin', 'clap', 'plan', 'swim', 'sniff'.

Write the key words on large flash cards.

Have ready drawings of an elephant, monkey, crocodile and snake.

Letters and sounds

Whole class teaching

Tell the pupils they are going to learn to read CCVC words quickly.

Point to 'spin'.

Cover the first letter and read the word 'pin'.

Reveal the whole word, point to the first letter and say it with the class, 'sssss'.

Hold the sound as you point to the next consonant and slide them together.

Continue to sound out the rest of the word.

Help the pupils read the other words in the same way.

10
minutes

Introduction

Whole class teaching

Show the pupils the drawings of the elephant and monkey.

Ask if anyone has ever been to a zoo.

Explain that a zoo is a place where people can see animals from all over the world. The animals are in cages and are looked after. People pay to see the animals.

Hold up the first six key words, read and explain them.

minutes

Main activity

Group task

Tell the pupils to discuss what they know about each animal and then draw a picture of each animal.

Tell them to write three words by each animal, eg: elephant: long trunk grey, monkey: swing climb brown.

Ask each group to read the words they have written about the elephant and the monkey.

Plenary

Whole class teaching

Take the pupils outside to play a game called 'Animals freeze'.

Say an animal name and tell the pupils to move like that animal, eg: waving an arm like an elephant's trunk, opening and closing their hands like a crocodile's jaw.

Repeat with the other animals.

At intervals say, 'Freeze' and tell the pupils they must stand perfectly still until you say another animal name.

Anyone who is not moving correctly or who moves when you say 'Freeze' is out.

Continue until only a few pupils remain. They are the winners.

Introduction

Whole class teaching

Remind the pupils that a verb is a doing word.

Ask them to think about verbs for each animal, eg: elephant walks, monkey climbs, crocodile crawls, snake slithers.

Remind them that an adverb describes the verb.

Ask, 'Can someone say an adverb that describes an animal?' (Eg: a crocodile swims quickly.)

Ask the pupils to share their ideas and write them next to their ideas from yesterday.

25
minutes

Main activity

Whole class teaching

Ask the pupils to say two things they have learned about each animal and add their ideas to the list on the chalkboard.

Choose some pupils to read the list and make sure all the pupils understand the words.

Tell the pupils they are going to play a guessing game.

Group task

Ask the groups to choose an animal and think of three things to describe it.

Group task

Ask each group to make up speech for their animal when the food is shared.

Continue to write their speech on the right-hand side of the chalkboard as a playscript, eg:

Tortoise: I am very hungry.

Lion: Come and share with us.

Write the song you think the tortoise might have sung when he was full and happy.

Ask each group to say some things the Tortoise and his mother might say.

Choose some of their ideas to continue the playscript.

Plenary

Pair task

Read the whole playscript to the pupils.

Ask them to read and role play their parts as you point to each group's words.

Ask them what they think will happen next.

Keep the playscript for the next day.

Why are you fat?

Learning outcomes

By the end of the lesson, most pupils will be able to:

Spell important high frequency words.

Invent questions and answers for a playscript.

Teaching aids

Before the lesson:

Make a set of key word flash cards for each group.

Have ready parts 1 and 2 of 'The greedy tortoise' and copy part 3 next to part 2 on the chalkboard.

Letters and sounds

Whole class teaching

Remind the pupils that some words are tricky to spell.

Ask them how they can learn to spell these words. Use this method to help them remember how to spell 'because'.

Repeat with: 'house', 'little', 'only', 'saw', 'here', 'people' and 'there'.

Dictate the words slowly and ask the pupils to write them in their exercise books.

10
minutes

Introduction

Whole class teaching

Display the playscript from yesterday and ask the groups to read and act out their parts.

Ask them to say an adjective to describe each animal.

Read the key words with the pupils and make sure they understand them.

Give each group a set of key word cards.

Say each word and ask the groups to find the correct flash card and hold it up.

Story

Main activity

Whole class teaching

Read parts 1, 2 and 3 of 'The greedy tortoise'.

Ask the pupils to discuss why Lion did not believe the animals and say their ideas to the class.

Group task

Read the story again.

Tell each group to think of speech for their part in the story.

Tell them to think of questions their character would ask Tortoise and Lion.

Tell them to think how Tortoise and Lion would answer.

Give the pupils time to practise then ask them to say their ideas.

Continue to write their ideas as a playscript.

10
minutes

Plenary

Whole class teaching

Read the whole playscript to the pupils.

Ask them to read their parts as you point to each group's words.

Encourage them to move like the animals as they read and act out the playscript.

Ask them what they think will happen next.

Keep the playscript for the next day.

Learning outcomes

By the end of the lesson, most pupils will be able to:

Read some important high frequency words.

Help to write a playscript.

Teaching aids

Before the lesson:

Make one set of revision word cards for each group.

Copy part 4 of 'The greedy tortoise' next to part 3 on the chalkboard.

Letters and sounds

Whole class teaching

Write 'old', 'dark', 'house', and 'because' on the chalkboard.

Ask the pupils to read them.

Ask if anyone can use the words to say a sentence.

Write some of their ideas on the chalkboard.

Remind them that a sentence needs a capital letter and a full stop.

Give each group a set of revision word cards and ask them to say some of the words in sentences.

Tell them to write the sentences in their exercise books.

Revision

Learning outcomes

By the end of the lesson, most pupils will be able to:

Read and understand some of the words learned this year.

Perform a puppet show.

Teaching aids

Before the lesson:

Write the 'Revision questions' listed opposite on the chalkboard.

Have ready the playscript from yesterday.

Have ready sticks, tape, paper and colouring pencils and cut out animal pictures for all the pupils in each group to make stick puppets.

Letters and sounds

Whole class teaching

Remind the pupils how to read words by sounding them out.

Tell them they can check if a word is correct by reading to see if the whole sentence makes sense.

Give each group a revision question
from the chalkboard.

Tell them to write the sentence in their exercise book and write 'yes' or
'no' beside it to answer the question.

Swap the questions and repeat several times.

Choose some pupils to read the questions and say the answers.

Ask the others if they are correct.

10
minutes

Introduction

Group task

Tell the pupils they are going to act out their playscript using puppets.

Give each group their animal pictures.

Ask them to add details and colour to their puppets.

Give out the sticks and help the pupils make their puppets.

Tell them to hold up their puppets so they face you.

Ask each group to say in turn, 'I need food' in their animal's voice.

25
minutes

Main activity

Whole class teaching

Display the playscript they have written.

You may have to display it a page at a time.

Read it to the pupils.

Take the pupils outside and let them practise reading out their parts while holding up their puppets.

Point to the playscript so each group knows when to speak.

Practise several times so that they know their parts really well.

10
minutes

Plenary

Whole class teaching

Invite other classes to come and watch the performance of the 'Greedy tortoise' puppet show.

In 2008, Kwara State carried out a Teachers' Development Needs Assessment for all primary school teachers. This showed that most teachers in Kwara State did not have strong literacy and numeracy skills. The Kwara State Government responded by developing a strategy to support existing teachers and improve new teachers' pre-service training.

These literacy and numeracy lesson plans, developed by the Kwara State School Improvement Team, were part of that strategy. Two years after introducing these plans alongside the training and support programme, Kwara State began to see strong improvements in teachers' teaching skills and pupils' learning outcomes.

Special thanks go to:

The Honourable Commissioner and staff of the Kwara State Ministry of Education and Human Capital Development, as well as the Kwara State Universal Basic Education Board for their support and valuable input and for agreeing to share these plans with other states.

---

The UK's Department for International Development (DFID) and the DFID-funded ESSPIN programme for their input, focus, guidance and constructive criticism throughout the development of the plans.

---

Thanks also go to the teachers of Kwara State who have used these plans to bring about change in their classrooms.
